TRAGEDY AMONG US

PRESENTED BY JEFF TORRES

During this session, Mr. Torres will talk about the current laws, investigations, terminology and trends as they pertain to Human Trafficking in today's world. This session will bring to the forefront the current day elements of human trafficking and those who are involved as both suspects and victims. The attendees will also learn terminology, victim/interpreter interaction considerations, cultural and societal aspects, as well as criminal procedures and techniques that bring these cases to courtrooms around the country. This session will not only cover Human Trafficking as it pertains to sex trafficking, but also the robust international business of human trafficking for "hire" and which is carried on in cities across the country in a shockingly regular fashion.

[Language neutral]
